

WHAT I WANT

Describe anything you want in your life and why

What are all the things you want?
Next to each one, write why you want it. What will having that do for you?

What do want that you already have today?

What if you never have anything more than you have today? How will you feel?

How will you feel when you have what you want?

What will having what you want cost you?